BROCHURES

Ecletica

Ecletica: The Ultimate Inter-College Economic Fest
I had the opportunity to design the brochure for Ecletica, an inter-college economic fest organized by the Association of Economics (FESA), Farook College.

This event brought together bright minds for a day of exciting competitions, insightful discussions, and opportunities to explore the world of economics. It was a great experience to contribute to the event's success by creating a design that captured its energy and purpose.

Tilasto

Tilasto 2.0: Inter-College Statistical Fest
I had the opportunity to design the brochure for Tilasto 2.0, an inter-college statistical fest organized by the Association of Statistics, Farook College.

The event celebrated the world of data and analytics through exciting competitions and insightful discussions. It was a rewarding experience to craft a design that captured the essence and energy of the event.
